Tel Aviv Airport Terminal 3 stands for the international terminal.

Ben Gurion Terminal 3 has a satellite terminal "Rotunda" which is home of Concourses B, C, D (and in the nearly future Concourse E) and has 30 gates.

Each concourse has 8 jetway-equipped gates (numbered 2 through 9) and 2 stand gates (bus bays, 1 and 1A) from which passengers are ferried to the aircraft.

The upper level departures hall, with an area of 110,000 sq ft is equipped with 110 check-in counters as well as flight information display systems.

A small shopping mall, known as Buy & Bye, is open to both travellers and the general public. The mall includes restaurants, shops and a post office.

PRESENT & FUTURE

Terminal 3 is going to have 90 additional checkin counters and also a new concourse, E.
